

APPLICATION FOR A GRANT FROM THE CENTRAL READERS COUNCIL
(ADAMS FUND) TOWARDS A COURSE OF TRAINING.

Notes:

- This application is for a grant from the Adams fund held by the Central Readers' Council.
- These funds are not available for initial training, but for help towards the cost of courses of study taken subsequently, for which insufficient funding is available from other sources.
- Many dioceses have some grants available for CME purposes. In normal circumstances, it is expected that an application for a grant will already have been submitted to the applicant's home diocese, prior to application being made to the Central Readers' Council.
- Every application must be supported by the Warden of Readers for the applicant's home diocese. This support should normally be shown on the reverse of this form, or by separate letter to the Hon Secretary, Central Readers' Council.
- The receipt of a completed application form cannot be construed to mean that a grant will necessarily be available. The decision of the Central Readers' Council and/or its officers is final, and may be limited by the availability of funds at any given time, as well as the suitability of any particular candidate or proposed course of study.
- Applications should be received well in advance in order for consultations to take place.
